Bookmark the Biomedical Library’s home page to access the most current links for electronic resources and library services.

On our site you’ll find

- Thousands of e-journals and other e-resources available on your desktop from anywhere
- Information about Off-Campus Access to online books, journals, databases, and more
- UCLA-specific URLs to your favorite resources with links to full text through UC-eLinks
- Help from reference librarians, online tutorials, and subject guides to assist you in your research
- Updates about your favorite databases, newly acquired resources, events at UCLA Library, and more through the Biomedical Library Blog!

New to UCLA? Be sure to…

- Activate your library card at the circulation desk at the Biomedical Library. This will let you check out materials from the library and request articles through interlibrary loan for items we don’t own.
- Sign up for a UCLA Logon ID at http://www.bol.ucla.edu/services/accounts/. A UCLA Logon ID is necessary for off-campus access to e-journals, e-books, databases, etc.
- Set up your home computer for off-campus access! Instructions available online at http://www.bol.ucla.edu/services/proxy/.
- Get to know your librarians! Stop by and introduce yourself. UCLA Biomedical Librarians are happy to help you with any questions you may have about the library, our services, or our resources.
